RIEL'S REBELS

Burn the Farm Country About Battleford and Leave Desolation Behind Them.

The Frightful St. Louis Hotel Tragedy
Still Occupies the Public Ear.

Major Carter H. Harrison to Seek Vindication and Then Resign His Trust.

RIEL'S WAR.

Indians Burn the Country About Battleford.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WINNIPEG, April 15.—A Battleford dispatch says: "The country north of here was burned yesterday for miles by the Indians traveling westward. All farms on both sides of the river were raided and the horses and cattle driven away."

NO MORE ARMS.

OTTAWA, April 15.—In view of the large quantity of arms and ammunition the Indians have been found to possess, the government has decided to bring down measures immediately prohibiting the sale of arms and ammunition to Indians under the penalty of a heavy fine and imprisonment.

THE BLOODY DEED.

The Southern Hotel Tragedy Deepens in Mystery and Horror.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—Walter H. Lennox
Maxwell, the supposed murderer of Preller, whose decapitated body was found in a trunk at the Southern hotel yesterday, bought a ticket for San Francisco, Monday, April 6. The murdered man's body lies at the morgue and thousands flock to view the horrible sight.

THE INQUIRY.

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—The inquest on the body of C. Arthur Preller, the victim of the Southern Hotel murder, has been indefinitely postponed by the coroner.
He is awaiting the following of the latest clues and advices from relatives.

WHO THEY ARE.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Richard W.
Owens, pastor of the Plymouth Brethren, says of Mr. Preller, the victim of the St.
Louis tragedy: "C. Arthur Preller was a son of E. Preller, a London dealer in the higher grades of decorative print cloths, borderings and silks. His brother and himself were also interested in the firm and he traveled as its representative. He was of a retiring, almost effeminate nature, a pur-minded man and an earnest member of our order. He was about twenty-seven years old, but was very young in appearance. He had no enemies, and the only trait which would bring him in contact with rough characters was a desire to explore the slums of a great city. When here I took him through the lower wards, and he was interested in the missionary work being done there."

"Of Walter Lennox Maxwell I know
but little. He is a wealthy English nobleman, a baronet and relative of Hon.
Somerset Maxwell, the present Lord Fontham, who is an active member of our order. Sir Walter was to be the traveling companion of Mr. Preller through Australia and India, back to England."

THE EAGLE TO SOUTH

Major Harrison Prepares to Resign When Indicated.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 15.—An evening paper professing to speak for Mayor Harrison declares that the latter expects to be shown as having been elected mayor on the counting of the ballots and that after the announcement is made, he will resign his office. The reason assigned is that he does not care to be subjected to the expensive litigation of a contest
by the republican managers.

ONE DAY.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

SPRINGFIELD, April 15.—In joint assembly only one vote was cast for senator, and the body adjourned.

THE ODD FELLOWS

Interesting Program for the Grand Celebration on the Occasion of the Sixty-Sixth Anniversary of the Order.

Following is the program of the public celebration of the anniversary of Old Fellowship in Fort Wayne

April 27th: Deputy Sheriff P. J. Wise will be the master of ceremonies; C. A.
Zollinger, marshal, and William Hahn and Robert Renfrew assistants.

Reception in the forenoon of visiting lodges and members of the order.
From twelve to half-past one o'clock dinner will be served to all visiting brothers, also to those living outside the city who belong to the home lodges.

At half-past one o'clock the different organizations will meet at the hall of Fort Wayne Lodge, No. 14, and the procession will be formed on East Berry street, with the right resting on Calhoun street, in the following order:
First—All uniform patriots as an escort.

Second—Subordinate lodges will take position in order of juniority.

Third—Subordinate encampments in order of juniority.

Fourth—Speakers and chaplain in carriages.

The marshal and assistants will move
the procession promptly at 2 p.m., making a short march through the principal streets and arriving at the Masonic Temple at 3 p.m., where the following will be the order of exercises:

Appropriate music, after which the published ceremony adopted by the Sovereign grand lodge of the United States will be carried out.

The following hymn will be sung during the ceremony, in which all are invited to join:

TUNE: "Corporal of."

All glorious, mighty Lord, to Thee
Our grateful song we raise;

Best source of our prosperity,
Thy guardian care we praise.

Our order, once a little band,

In weakness and in fear
Brought the guidance of Thy hand,

Its thorny path to cheer.

The few, through Thy preserving care,

Are now a mighty host;

And Thou, who harken to our prayer,
Shall be our constant boast.

Off mid despondency and tears,

Our weary feet have gone;

But Thou, through long, eventful years,
Have safely led us on.

Then joyfully our hymns of praise,

In gratitude we frame;

Our battle-jubilant high we raise

To Thy Almighty name.

Prayer:

Orations by W. R. Myers, Indianapolis,
Ind., and Enoch Cox, Fort Wayne,
Ind., past grand masters.

After the orations the following ode will be sung, in which all are requested to join:

OUR FLAG.

TUNE: "My Maryland."

Fling wide our banner! Let the world see Honors provider greater than ours;

It points to higher destiny

Than crown—the strife of mortal powers,

Its bold of white, its border bright,

It links'd noting Union's might,

It was, an angel's wing above,

Proclaiming Friendship, Truth and Love.

CHORUS.

Its bold of white, its border bright, etc.

Ware, banner of the triple tie,

In trumpet glory over the land;

Not dismal or ensanguined dye,

Shall scar the fields that here expand.

Ever shall share the brother's prayer,

The orphan's curse from despair;

A benison each way shall bring,

And many a widowed heart shall sing.

CHORUS.

Its bold of white, its border bright, etc.

May blessings ever on it rest,

While heralding our order's fame;

In every motif manifested

The principles of good we claim;

Whose banner may shall round it play

Till merges in the high surgery;

And the glorious prize

The flag that greets our falling eyes.

CHORUS.

Its bold of white, its border bright, etc.

EVENING EXERCISES.

The order of exercises for the evening, at 7:30 p.m., will be as follows:

The members of the Order will assemble at the hall of the Fort Wayne Lodge, No. 14, which will act as an escort to the Masonic Temple, where the ceremonies will be of an informal nature, consisting of short addresses by distinguished visiting brothers.

Home talent, both vocal and instrumental, will furnish the music.

Following is the committee on invitation and arrangements: George Herr,

E. J. Hollister, E. G. Davis, of Fort Wayne Lodge, No. 14; W. Myers, Jas.
Liggett, James Harper, Harmony
Lodge, No. 19; Wm. Hahn, George Fisher, L. Jaxthimer, Concordia
Lodge, No. 228.

Committee on reception: C. G.
Smith, Daniel Harding, Samuel Wilkes,
Fort Wayne Lodge, No. 14; C. A. Zil-ling, Robert Stratton, Eugene B.
Smith, Harmony Lodge, No. 19; Edward Eble, Charles Schoenlein, Jacob Barrett, Concordia Lodge, No. 228.

The attention of visitors to the Railroad Reading Room is called to the rule of the association making the library for use only in the room. Through some misapprehension several of the books, some of them belonging to sets, by the same author, have been removed from the room. The library committee desire to catalogue and number the books, and trust that any one who has taken such books from the room will return them at once.

RUSSIA RILED.

England Asked to Account for the Presence of Its Officers at Penjeh.

Russia Demands the Withdrawal of Sir
Peter Lumden From Afghanistan.

Terrible Floods in the Disputed Territory—Powers to Remain Neutral.

RUSSIAN FIRE.

Caused by the Presence of British Officers
at the Penjeh Battle.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, April 15.—Gladstone's apparent hesitation over the Kosuk river affair has emboldened Russia. She is now taking her turn in demanding explanations and withdrawals. The report is confirmed that L. Degmers has demanded an explanation of the presence of Captain Yates, of General Lumden's staff, at the Kosuk river battle and of the part he is said to have taken in that engagement.

WRANGLING WITH TURKEY.

The government is still wrangling with Turkey over the terms of the proposed Anglo-Turkish alliance.

LUMDEN'S WITHDRAWAL DEMANDED.

Special dispatches from St. Petersburg even assert that Russia has demanded the recall of General Lumden himself on the ground of his pronounced sympathy with the Afghans in their hostility toward Russia, but this statement is doubtful.

CONSOLAS.

LONDON, April 15, 11:30 a.m.—There is a better feeling in the stock market, consols opened at 95½, advanced to 95¾.
Foreign funds are firm, Russian securities are at 83½.

11:30 p.m.—Consols, 95½; Russian securities, 84.

2 p.m.—Consols 95.7-16.

2:30 p.m.—Consols 95½.

A SURPRISING CHANGE

With its broad streets and majestic avenues adorned with stately buildings, Detroit is one of the most magnificent cities on this continent. Its new system of electric lighting throws into obscurity all the old methods, and leaves ordinary street lamps where dingy lanterns used to be. The new lights are on high lattice work towers, 125 to 150 feet high, shedding a radiance which is like intensified moonlight. The effect of this when the city is covered with its white robe of snow, is strangely beautiful.

A gentleman recently spent a day or two in Detroit, pushing his researches to some extent in the direction of finding out as to the new method of curing rheumatism by means of Athiophores, the remedy which in the last year or two has attained such favor as a "victor over this old enemy of the human race." Calling on Mr. H. H. Watson, the well-known superintendent of the American District Telegraph Company, he found that gentleman cheerfully ready to say all the pleasant things lie could about Athiophores.

"My wife," said Mr. Watson, "was suffering terribly from rheumatism; her pains were both in joints and muscles. So excruciating were her agonies when she moved, that sometimes on assuming one position in the morning she would remain in that position all day rather than endure the torment of being moved. I procured a bottle of Athiophores, and the effect on my wife was as surprising as it was gratifying. We had no idea that any medicine could so speedily remove such an obstinate disease. She was soon cured, and the cure was complete. Since that she has had no return of the disorder. We speak freely among our friends of the good work of Athiophores, and have no hesitation in saying how highly we esteem it."

Visiting nearly all the leading drug stores in the city, it was found that all who had kept Athiophores had received from their customers marked commendation of its efficacy.

One lady had taken six bottles of it with the result of a cure.

At Frizzell's, on Michigan Avenue, one of the clerks had taken it with excellent effect. This young man, Mr. Cohen, had suffered greatly from rheumatism.

Though surrounded by medicines of every description, they did not reach his case. Mr. Cohen tried Athiophores, and found that it did for him what nothing else had been able to do.

From Detroit to Chicago is but a day's ride, and in the latter city Athiophores has also accomplished some wonderful results.

In Chicago, at 105 West Twelfth street, lives Mr. William W. Summers, of the well-known firm of Summers, Morrison & Co., commission merchants, 174 South Water street. Mr. and Mrs. Summers gave substantially the following facts:

"When Robbie was taken sick some weeks ago we thought at first that it was only an ordinary cold, but it proved to be something much more severe. The pains were evidently those of rheumatism. We wrapped the boy in cotton and gave him a number of the remedies such as are generally given. His agony was dreadful. We had to hold him in the bed, his agony was so great. We had two physicians, who did not succeed in making him any better. The poor child's torture was so intense that he asked for a pistol, so that he might put himself out of the way and thus end his suffering. When he was at his worst we thought of Katie Gill, who was well known to us, and the medicine that had cured her. We sent to Mr. Gill's to know the name of the medicine and where to get it. They happened to have some left in a bottle—Athiophores the name is—and they kindly sent it to us. It is surely a very strong and powerful medicine, for it stopped the boy's pain very soon and very effectively. He took but a little of it. There was only enough for about three doses in the bottle Mr. Gill sent us. This was only a few weeks ago. The boy has had no return of rheumatism. You see him now as healthy and as happy as any other boy."

If you cannot get Athiophores or your physician will send it express post, by regular post—order it per post. We will guarantee to send it to you by mail, and if it fails to cure you, we will refund your money, but order at once from us, as we are at 105 Wall Street, New York.

The 11th of May next is set apart by the management of the New Orleans Exposition as "Veteran and National Guard Day," and will be made a grand gala day for all members of the Grand Army of the Republic and all ex-confederate organizations, together with all military organizations throughout the Union, and during that week there will be a grand prize drill open to infantry, artillery, cavalry and cadets.

The St. Louis Republican, which is usually well informed, says that the debt of England in 1817 amounted £48,282,148, "a figure which has never been equaled by any nation on earth." At £5 to pound sterling, which is as near the mark as our purpose requires, this sum is equal $1,241,400,000. But the 5, 41 and 2 per cent. rentes of France, according to a late statement, amounted to $1,750,337,100, besides a floating debt of $65,000.

Saturday, April 14, at the Hadley school, occurred a very interesting entertainment, consisting of recitations, dialogues, music and tableau. The house and stage were tastefully decorated and presented a very pleasing appearance. The program was interesting throughout. The selections were choice and reflected credit on the participants.

A very appropriate opening piece was delivered by Willie Towney, Clara Doughman, Nellie Quicksell, Lillie and Berrie Hays, Maggie Allen, Eddie and Bertha Fairfield.

Bessie Anderson and Cyrus Zimmer also gave interesting recitations.

Louise Rockhill, as "Mrs. Greenleaf" in the "Yankee Aunt," kept all in the best of humor.

In the dialogue of "The Assessor," Frank Doughman as "Thanshire" and Albert Crawford, as the "Assessor," highly entertained.

Ed Barthold, as "Pat," in "The Irish Linen Puddler," kept the audience in a continual wave of merriment.

The actors in "Hans Von Bismarck" creditably performed their respective parts. Jesse Brasius, as "Hans," brought forth one peal of merriment after another.

Charles Barthold, as "Mr. Brown" in "The Village with One Gentleman," amused with the difficulties he encountered.

The bridal tableau in "The Boy's Plot" was especially admired.

Musie was kindly furnished by Mrs. Pete Laurent and Mac and Arnold Lee.

The Banker's Daughter.

The Bridgeport, Pa., Era says: "The Banker's Daughter" by James E. Crossen's company at the Opera house last evening before a large and sympathetic audience, was a successful presentation, and worked much favorable comment. The humor in this strongly emotional play was happily brought out by Mr. Crossen as Phipps and Miss Erie as Florence St. Vincent Brown. The piece is familiar to our playgoers, who evidently enjoyed last evening's smooth rendition." This company appears at the Temple to-morrow evening.

In the federal court at Indianapolis yesterday, a motion for a preliminary injunction in the case of the Pope Safety valve company vs. Kunkle, of Fort Wayne, was argued at length before Judge Woods. The case grows out of a conflict between two patentees, Richardson and Kunkle, and was decided in favor of the defendant by Judge Blodgett, in the district court, but was carried to the supreme court, where the decision was reversed. Judge Raymond, of Chicago, is representing Kunkle and Col. Thomas W. Clark, patent solicitor, of Boston, is representing the plaintiff.

Educated and Experienced.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared by C. E. Hood, apothecaries, Lowell, Mass., who have a thorough knowledge of pharmacy and many years practical experience in the business. It is prepared with the greatest skill and care under the direction of the man who originated it. Hence Hood's Sarsaparilla may be depended upon as a thoroughly pure, honest and reliable medicine.
